

Grievance and Appeals Procedure

Document ID: POL-HR-008

Raising a Grievance

Employees who believe they have been subject to unfair treatment may raise a formal grievance.

Process

1. Informal discussion with line manager (recommended first step)
2. Written grievance to HR
3. HR investigation (up to 15 working days)
4. Decision communicated to employee
5. Appeal to HR Director within 5 working days of decision

Confidentiality

Grievance proceedings are confidential. Retaliation against employees raising grievances in good faith is prohibited.

External Arbitration

Unresolved grievances may be escalated per UAE labor law provisions.
